LONG HIKE TO PANAMA EXPOSITION.

(New York Sun.)

Two boys, one just 19 and the other only 16, impelled by a desire to attend the Panama Exposition, left the city hall to walk across the continent. They plan to earn their way as they go, and when they started they only had the money they got from selling "Storm-Tossed Dreams," a twenty-page pamphlet of poems written by one of them.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months."

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health.

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

Vanceburg (Sun) R. H. Reese, of the State Road Commissioner's staff, arrived last Thursday and he and County Engineer I. W. Saygers and a force of men are working like beavers to survey as much of our roads as they can and get the work started on some before bad weather sets in.

SAYS IT'S NOT IN THE BIBLE.

Cape Town, Africa.—On the ground that it is contrary to biblical teaching, the Dutch women of Zoutpansberg have petitioned the South African parliament against female suffrage. Furthermore, they say that women really do not want to vote, would not use it if they had it, and that men are amply qualified to make and administer the laws without the assistance of the other sex.

AN EXCITING ARREST

(Vanceburg Sun.) Sheriff W. T. Stone and Jailer Henry Sullivan and Constable George Davis of Adams County, Ohio, arrested Marcus Gifford, of Twin Creek, Ohio, in Dugan's tobacco field below town last Friday on the charge of having ravished his 18 year old sister-in-law at Twin Creek. Stone and Sullivan went to Dugan's saw mill after him and he started to run through the field toward the railroad. Davis was on the railroad and when Gifford saw him he turned and started for the hills. Davis fired his revolver in the air and Gifford, threw down a loaded shotgun, which he was carrying, and surrendered. He went to West Union without requisition papers and denies his guilt.

CAMPMEETING

Great Throngs at Ruggles and

"God's First Temples" Resound With Praise, Prayer and Song

Notes From the Meeting and the People There

Ruggles Campground, July 23. The opening day of camping met nearly everyone at his or her post of duty. Enough preachers are now on the grounds to give us two fresh sermons per day for awhile. Those present are Revs. William Jones of Ludlow, J. M. Lital and A. F. Felts of Maysville, H. D. Cooper of Tolesboro, W. B. Gilley of Vanceburg, G. N. Jolly D. D., of Ludlow, J. U. Brown of Catlettburg, and Howard Trent of Gallup.

Brother Trent will take care of the piano. Anyone who knows Howard knows of his ability to play the piano and to entertain the fair sex. Pretty girls are in the majority here this year so you can depend upon it that Brother Trent will not be lonesome.

Campers have been arriving all day. The following families have moved in: Mrs. Dr. Irvin of Tolesboro; Mrs. W. H. Thomas of Burtonville; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hendrixson of Vanceburg; Mrs. John R. Brout and daughter of Summit; Mrs. Jordan and family of Mt. Carmel; Dewitt Wycoff and family of Mt. Carmel; Mr. Breeze and family of the county and many others whose names we failed to get on account of the rush.

With an encampment of about five hundred it will be a hard matter to keep track of all visitors who come and go so we will just say if the campers will hand in the news at headquarters, No. 12 "Old Kentucky Home," and the writer with the Maysville papers will do the rest.

Miss Virginia Mae Hurd who is to have charge of the Children's services arrived this afternoon, having just returned from the summer term at the Eastern Kentucky Normal school at Richmond. The children will be delighted now as Miss Hurd is the most successful worker with the children that has ever been here.

Mr. George N. Harding of Maysville was in camp for several hours today. Misses Fannie Bierbower and Stevenson, and Messrs. I. M. Lane and W. L. Davidson returned to Maysville by the morning auto today. Mr. Lane returned this afternoon.

Miss Grace Bierbower came out today and is at home at Cozy Cottage, No. 2, Tabernacle Square.

The first service of the campmeeting was held at 10 a. m. today with our Rev. J. M. Lital as the preacher. He gave us a splendid sermon, using as his text, "The People Had a Mind to Work." He made the application to the work of the campmeeting saying if everyone would do his or her work as they should in their own place, no matter if it was only "The Faithful Few" the meetings would be a great success spiritually. The sermon was well received all feeling that it was a good introductory service for great things.

Rev. J. Fletcher Lewis, pastor of Grace M. E. Church, Newport, will arrive Monday and will preach each evening next week and lead in the evange list services. Rev. Armacost who was to have conducted this part of the meeting is unable to come. The change to Dr. Lewis is a very satisfactory one as he is one of our best preachers.

The Rev. Dr. Kirby of East Liverpool, Ohio, is to be the big preacher for the first Sunday. You will want to hear him. There will surely be a big first Sunday crowd this year. It's one of the best days of campmeeting.

Rev. H. D. Cooper preached this evening to the biggest first-night audience we've seen here in a long time. The service went off with a vim that betokened good things for the future. Mr. Boyd K. Muse who has charge of the singing, is getting a large chorus choir together and you can rest assured that there will plenty of good Gospel music.

CLARA BARTON.

To have known Clara Barton, at any time, was a privilege, a stroke of fortune, to know of her as she flashed upon the world at her best, was a revelation, nothing less. Romance and fiction may have dimly outlined such a career; real life has evolved but one Clara Barton. She was a native of Massachusetts. When I became a clerk in Fifth Auditor's office at Washington, she occupied a like position in the Patent Office, and official duties developed an acquaintance, founding with me, bright memories of that period and the deepest admiration for the character subsequently developed. To fittingly portray such would verge upon eulogy, fulsome seemingly in the simplest detail of commanding fact.

She came at a world's crisis, obedient to a special call and equipped to fulfill a mission—fitted into a niche by nation's law designed, fulfilled her destiny! Not from a sense of duty just, but from an impulse as normal and destitute as the beating of her great heart! She duplicated the immaculate Florence Nightingale, with all the super-souled heroism coming of opportunity, time and place. One grand, peerless woman!

Her authentic history, as philanthropist and chief official of the American Red Cross Society is, briefly:

The Civil War coming, she at once yielded to her native human impulses, resigned her position in the Department devoted all her energies to the care of suffering soldiers, on the battlefield or wherever found; finally taking charge of all the hospitals on James River.

Congress fully appreciative, appropriated $15,000 or $20,000 to aid in her efforts on the field, organizing the search for wounded or missing, and for marking the graves of dead soldiers in the Cemetery at Andersonville. Later becoming a brilliant national character, she was made president of the Red Cross; during the Franco-German war, aided the Duchess of Baden in organizing and equipping relief hospitals (for which humane work she was honored with the decoration of the Iron Cross of Germany) and most creditably represented the United States at the noted Geneva conference. She did marvelous service during the famine in Russia, the Armenian massacres, and the Spanish-American War. Her life was one of perpetual sacrifice and devotion upon the call of her country.

"Taken for all in all," this world will rarely look upon the like of Clara Barton again. And early friendly relations though limited, brightly tint a space in my memory.
